ADMINISTRATION

ADMINISTRATORS OF KNOWLEDGE

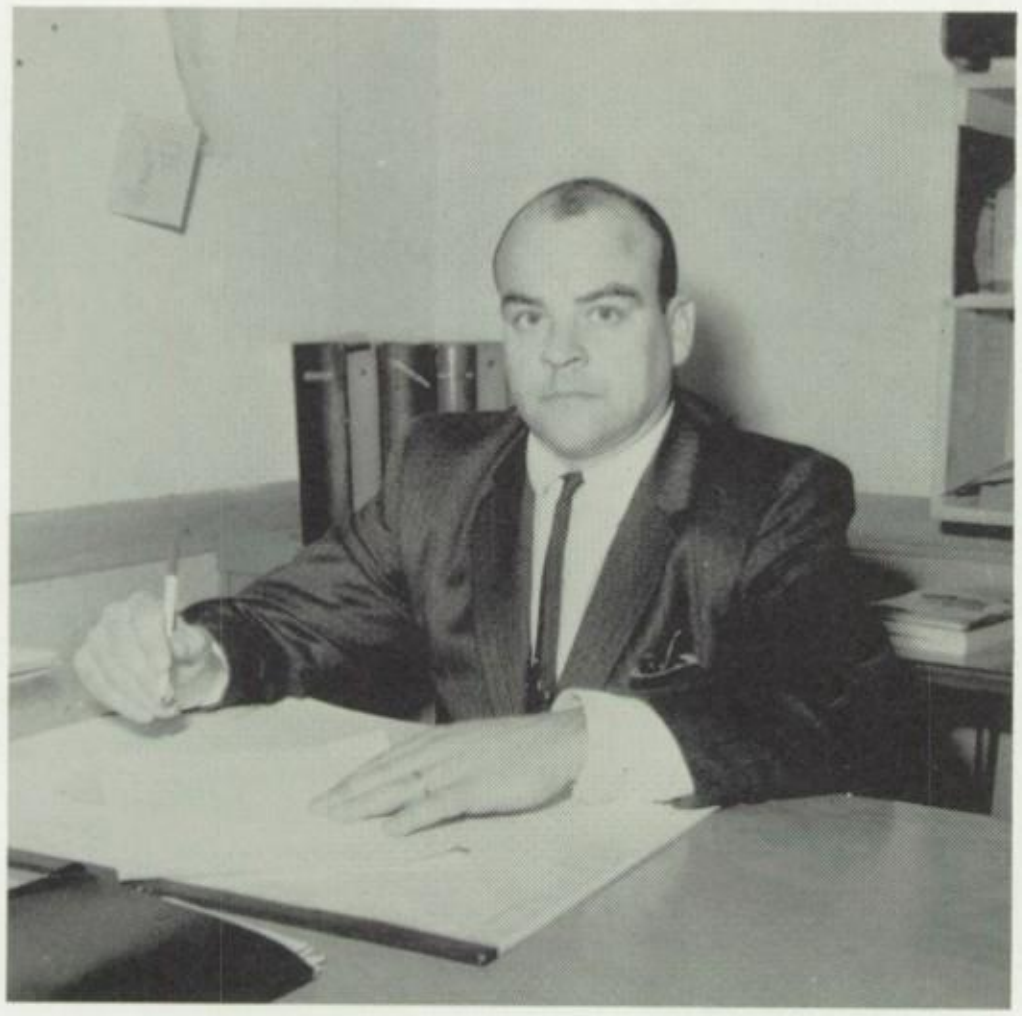
Behind the Superintendent's desk is Mr. Gordon Thompson with a jolly laugh and a smile for everyone. Finishing his first year at this position, he has surprised everyone with his accomplishments and leadership behind the desk.

MARGE PITT

OFFICE SECRETARIES

BARBARA NJUS

MARGARET SMITH



Preferring a smaller community, Mr. Coughenour came to Athens from Garden City to become our principal. He has made the school year brighter with his friendly voice each morning and his understanding ways with the students.

A very versatile person is Mr. Eugene Cooley acting as elementary principal, teacher, coach and friend. This has been a rewarding second year for him at Athens. His students have enjoyed his leadership in his many fields.

THE GUIDING MINDS

The Athens' schoolboard has accomplished its goals this year in developing our educational facilities and programs. Each member has done his job in furthering the development of the Athens school system.

We appreciate their work in all they have done especially in the passing of the bond issue which has been their main goal and project. As a result of this bond issue Athens will have two new elementary schools and a new addition to the high school.

Hats off to these fine schoolboard members, for a job well done!

SCHOOLBOARD OFFICERS; Raymond Korn, Robert Moore, and Frank Kelley.

D.A.R. GOOD CITIZEN

Carolyn Ann Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Smith, was selected by her classmates and faculty as D. A. R. Good Citizen of 1965. She was chosen on the basis of dependability, truthfulness, loyalty, service, co-operation, leadership, self-control, ability to assume responsibility, and patriotism.

Carolyn has served on the Student Council throughout her high school years. She is also a two year veteran of the flag team, Quill and Scroll Society, and National Honor Society. In the latter, she served as Treasurer in her Junior year, and as President during her Senior year. Carolyn was also a member of the Victory Club in her Freshman and Senior years.

This year, Carolyn is editor of the "Athens High Lite." following the position of assistant editor in her junior year. She is also a member of tne "Athenian" staff.

In her Sophomore year, she served on the Football Homecoming Court. This touch of royalty followed her through to the summer of 1964 when she was chosen as Queen of the Athens Village Homecoming.

Carolyn plans to attend Kellogg Community College next year, enrolling in the course of an Executive Secretary.

MORE WORLDS THAN ONE By Lynn Cuyler

Long time past in hazily remembered youth,
When all that existed was the family home,
The masterly Father and our loving Mom
Were the honored gods of that simple world.

Long we had known of an intruder to come.
We looked forward with both excitement and fear,
For we knew that this different kind of pastime
Would be oddly strange, yet wonderfully new.

Yes, we all started on that long journey;
Wondering what new adventure we would soon encounter,
And what exciting moments we would enjoy
In this brand new world of education.

Though each year seemed so long
The great learning process went on.
Thirteen years, until that golden honor
Of senior's we were so fast endowed.

Each year, in the history of the class of "65,"
Will be cherished and long remembered;
Not just the earth shaking things that rarely came,
But those priceless adventures that were to every day.

Soon we shall close ranks no more.
We must face the complex social world of today.
What will become of us?
Only God knows - each life is in his hands.

ATHENS ALL-STARS

All-Conference

JOHN EDGELL
Back, Linebacker

Those to gain recognition as "All Conference Honorable Mention" were Jeff Horton, Bill Potts, Larry Arbogast, John Korn, Tom Moore, Kirk Norton, Tony Rogers, Rick Smith, Jim Voss, and Dick Lane. John Edgell was one of the eight players in our league to gain recognition as Honorable Mention in the Associated Press 1964 Class C All State Team.

LES SWARTZ AWARD

Presented for the first time this year, the Les Swartz award is given on the basis of leadership, citizenship, and football abilities. Lester Swartz was a teacher, coach, and high school principal here before "retiring."

Rick Smith, Junior quarterback, was the first recipient. Awards were also given to the Junior Varsity, and Junior High teams, and the cheerleaders.

LITTLE

Although continually picked as the underdog Athens finished its first winning season since 1961, with a 4-3 won-lost record. The Indians showed their talent early in the season by whipping arch-rival Union City 20-19. The key plan in the game came with one second left in the first half on a 60-yard pass play from Rick Smith to Tony Rogers. Athens retained the traditional Little Brown Jug.

The Indians also took impressive wins from Litchfield, Jonesville and Reading. Athens will lose twelve seniors through graduation, but has eighteen letter winners returning next year.

Coach Don Anderson did a fine job with his boys, and deserves praise for the fine season.

OUR TEAM OF TOMORROW

The Junior Varsity Football team coached by Mr. Don Rumery fared well throughout its season. They lacked experience and numbers, but they still pulled through with two wins. One of the highlights of their fine season was the Union City game, which they won handily 31 to 0 to keep the Little Little Brown Jug. Juniors Darwin Stewart, and Tom, and Mike Morey were team standouts for the season.

SOMETHING NICE FOR SOMEONE GREAT

Homecoming night, September 25th, the new scoreboard was dedicated in memory of Tommy Tomlinson, a former school board member. This was a memorable moment that will be long remembered.

BOAT FLOATS TO THE FINISH!

The sophomores took first place in float competition with the theme, "Don't give up the ship!"

ARMY SURPLUS INVADES ATHENS!

The junior class received second place with their original rendition of, "We've just begun to fight!"

"ATHENS GETS LIBERTY, UNION GETS DEATH!"

The eighth grade was proud when they walked off with third place, with the theme, "Give me liberty or give me death!"

JUNIOR PLAY

April 8-9, 1964 the Jr. Class presented the play "Cupid in Pigtails." Ardis Stanton portrays the thirty-eight year old widow, Mabelle, who is the mother of three children, Todd played by Mike Roggow, Gail, Ann Auten and Suzy played by Madalyn Stewart. Mabelle had to find a husband rich enough to support herself and her family so that they can get out from under the tyrannical rule of her Aunt-Dotty, played by Jean Neterer. Their maid Gertie Groot, Elizabeth Woods, adds to the humor with her itching and her hilarious conversations. Tom Hoskin, portraying Squeegee Squires, acted as an "idiot child" to everyone's amazement including his mother, Mrs. Squires, Gretchen Moore. Murchison Fogg and Rollo Sapleton played by Lynn Cuyler and Bob Leslie, are Mabelle's suitors. Murchison has two snobby children, who tired to entrance the naive McAdams children, Mary Miller and Lonn Spencer, playing April and Beasley Fogg. The McAdams life-time friends, Pete and Beth Farley, in reality, Erwin Stanton and Janet Snyder, finally captured their friend's hearts after a few surprising antics on the part of Erwin when he exploded on the scene as the "Mad Butcher." Ricky Wesner, who saved everyone in the end when he tackled Erwin and won the love of Mabelle, was Carter Prescott, an old flame of Mabelle's.

Under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Cooley and with the help of Mr. Don Rumery the play was an astounding success that kept the audience entranced.

ROOM AND BORED

Ray Collins, (Bob Leslie) a writer and father of two teenage daughters, Jean (Margie Poplawski) and Claudia (Madalyn Stewart), is the dweller of a summer cottage. He and his wife, Sylvia (Jean Neterer) are astounded when they find that Claudia is going to bring a poet home with her. The poet (Lonn Spencer) not only says everything in rhymes, but he has a name of "Craven Bentley!" Mrs. Aiken, (Gretchen Moore) a hypochondriac, is the overpowering mother of her sissified son, Clyde (Tom Hoskin). Jean likes Clyde, but Clyde likes Dotty Foster (Bonnie Hammond) which adds to the confusion. Dotty is the younger sister of Tony Foster, (Orman Trumblee) who is head over teakettle in love with Claudia. Claudia centers all her attention on Craven though, and this causes Tony to be very irrate. Mrs. Cavendish (Elizabeth Woods) is the rich aggravating employer of Tony. Mrs. Cavendish is supposedly the proud owner of a "Ming Vase," which she accuses Tony of stealing. Craven plans a recital to prove to everyone his talent. Everyone in the neighborhood attends the recital including Nell Bouden, (Ann Auten) Ray's literary agent. Zeena Deever (Mary Miller) appears on the set with a pair of bongos which she uses to accompany Craven when he recites his poems. Silas McNabb (Dennis Palmiter) is the general what-have-you, including the policeman, so when he bursts into the recital and starts to arrest Tony, Mrs. Audobon, (Carolyn Smith) a stuttering bird watcher, clears everything up when she presents a picture of Craven with the vase. Silas suddenly recognizes Mrs. Cavendish as an insurance fraud and Zeena and Craven are her accomplices. In the end Tony finally wins Claudia's love and Ray goes back to his book, which is past deadline. Mr. O'Riely (Erwin Stanton) suddenly bursts forth with his many children only to cause a little more confusion. The Senior Play was a great success under the direction of Mrs. Gras.
